INDICATION TO DRAFT THE REPORT

The following should be taken into consideration:

Everybody having accepted a referendar for an apprenticeship is requested to report extensively on the range of the education and the performance of the referendar. In particular, the certificate should deal with the capability of practical application of the law, his or her understanding of the basics and the associations of legal stipulations and extent of his or her ability to judge situations in life according to their legal and other background.

The certificate should assess the entire performance of the referendar by points and a corresponding assessment.

The following assessment and points are available excellent (16, 17 or 18 points)	=	especially high performance good (13, 14 or 15 points)	=	a performance significantly excelling average entirely satisfactory (10, 11 or 12 points)	=	a performance better than average satisfactory (7, 8 or 9 points)	=	a performance having met the average in every respect sufficient (4, 5 or 6 points)	=	a performance having met the average notwithstanding certain faults insufficient (1, 2 or 3 points)	=	a performance showing decisive faults entirely insufficient (0 points)	=	a performance entirely unacceptable
